LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

A dreadful accident occurred at the coal pen at Lebanon Junction, in which Will Shaw was instantly killed and Herman Callihan was fatally injured.

Both men were at work there and after the chain had raised a scoop of 25 bushels of coal, some cog slipped and the whole scoop fell on them with the above results. Will Shaw was reared in Hardin county and is a brother-in-law of Conductor Ernest McMillen. Callihan was reared near Coleburg and is a brother-in-law of Engineer Will Thomas. Both are nice young men, who have numerous friends.

Edward Dean, who has been connected with the Howell Copper Smith Shop for several years in the capacity of pipe-fitter, resigned the other day. He has gone to Little Rock, Ark., where he has accepted a position under Foreman Harry Horn with the Burlington Route.

Fireman Ed Stanfield is no longer firing the hill engine at New Empire, where he has been for about six months. He is now keeping one of the 900's hot for Engineer J. E. Long, for whom he fired before he went on the hill.

Earlington Switch Fireman F. M. Logan has been assigned to Empire Hill.

Phillip Harrison, manager of the New York Lubricating Company, called on Mr. Walsh last week.

Fireman L. C. Waters has been granted a transfer from the Henderson Division to the Kentucky Central Division.

Switch engine 1054, which used to work in Henderson yard, went over the road, dead-head Saturday, on its way to Lexington. In place of it was sent switch engine 318, which is a larger engine than the 1054.

Engine 899 has been sent from one of the Southern Divisions to Howell shop for general repairs. Mr. Walsh has repaired several engines for the Southern Divisions, and will, no doubt, have the pleasure of repairing several more. It is the good work done at Howell shops that bring them there.

A lump of coal falling from the tender of engine 208 on train 51 on the 12th at Earlington struck Fireman James Nolan on the head, injuring him so that he had to be relieved by another fireman. Jim seems to be in a streak of bad luck.

Mrs. J. L. Starks and son of Nashville are visiting in Memphis, Tenn.

W. H. Young of Howell left for Denver, Colo., the first of week, where he intends to better his health.

W. D. Fretwell, who has had several years' experience as a fireman on the C. V. Division, has been given a position on the Henderson Division.

Conductor E. H. Mann has been appointed station master of the new depot at Evansville.

A certain conductor and flagman are warned to quit playing base ball on Sunday as they are liable to dislocate a finger.

Some of the conductors are trying to get an eight hour lay over at the Nashville end of the road. This would be nice for those who live there.

Conductor Bramwell was here Sunday visiting his family who are at present visiting relatives here for a few days.

V. R. Bourland, who is one of the L. & N.'s popular flagmen was in Madisonville Monday visiting home folks.

A large number of the engineers, conductors, brakemen, flagmen, agents and operators are subscribing for the Mid-Summer edition of THE BEE.

A. B. McVay Supt. of Bridges Buildings was in Madisonville Monday looking after the work on the freight depot.

It is reported that one of the young engineers on the H. D. will get married soon if he can get any one to have him.

Railroading on the H. D. is unusually good for this season of the year. Everyone is busy all the time.

The pay car went through Monday and distributed a little of the needful to the R. R. boys.

A new contestant for the prize offered by THE BEE for the handsomest man on the division appears this week in the person of Dispatcher McKeown.

A history of the H. D. from the time it was surveyed until the present will make interesting reading. This will be found in the Special Mid-Summer railroad edition of THE BEE.

A certain young lady in Earlington in conversation with an old railroad man said she thought

Conductor Hackney was just too cute for anything.

Conductor Shelton and his courteous flagman have the sincere thanks of several Earlingtonians for favors conferred last Sunday.

Ed Cunningham who is in the employ of the L. & N. and has been making his home in Nashville has changed runs and will now move his family to Earlington. He will occupy the residence of Mr. John Price when the latter moves to his new home in Madisonville.

One of the dispatchers is authority for the statement that Engineer Loch Rowe is the only man who has been able to make the schedule time on 91 between Henderson and Sebree since the new time table went into effect.

Agent E. M. Orr has permission to be absent a few days and contemplates putting in the time at Rumsey on Green river yanking the wary bass from their watery lair. He and several other fishing cranks will leave Earlington sometime about June 4th.

On after May 21st passenger trains 91 and 92 will not stop at Stark's Rest.

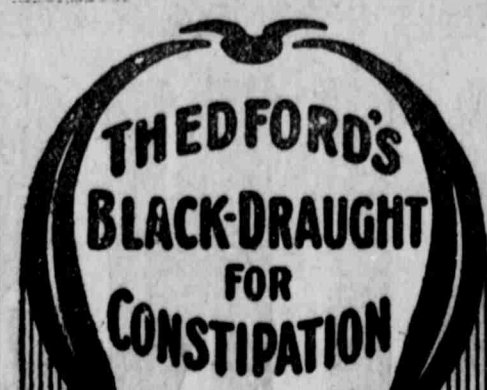

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many kind friends for all the kindness and sympathy bestowed on us during the last illness of our beloved daughter. We hope and pray that our dear Lord will console and comfort their sad hearts in the dark hour of trouble and grief and bestow on them His choicest blessings during life.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS DUBUSSION.

It would pay Kentuckians to drop politics awhile and set out tobacco.

People who throw good money after bad are as deficient in aim as they are in common sense.

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Theodor's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Theodor's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901. I cannot recommend Theodor's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.

C. B. McFARLAND.

What's the Matter With Jim?

Thomas was tall and slender and fair.

With dark brown eyes and curly hair, Cupid lips and aristocratic air, And something up in his little round head,

If it wasn't sense it would do instead;

At any rate, that's what his mother said.

Jim, his cousin and friend and chum,

Had cheeks just like a big red plum. He was built kinder short and chubby and fat,

And his ma had just bought him a new straw hat.

At quarreling Jim was slow to begin it,

But if you touched his hat, he'd fight in a minute.

One day the nurse found the two in a fuss,

And straightway tried to quiet the muss.

Thomas looked up with an innocent stare,

And said in the most complacent air—

"I don't know what's the matter with Jim.

For I ain't done nuthin' ter him, He 'ist hit me, an' bumped his head,

An' I tell you 'zackly what he said; He said if anybody knocked his hat off er him,

He'd knock ther stuffin' out er him —k-splim!!

For his hat was new an' awful nice, He ain't wore it but 'sep' twice.

"An' me an' him was a-goin' to play, An' the wind come blowin' round that way,

An' blowed Jim's hat right off in ther wet!

An' he was awful mad!! You bet! An' he 'ist swelled up an' jumped onto me!

(Cause Jim was mad as he could be!)

An' he said I knocked his hat off er him,

An' I reckon that's what's ther matter with Jim,

For I ain't done nuthin' ter him."

Tell me, kind friends, can you see through it?

Was it the wind that really blew it? Or did the little rascal do it?

I don't know and neither do you— But one thing certain, Thomas knew.

—L. W. C.

MRS. BAILEY WINSTEAD

Shoots a Young Boy at Sebree Thinking He Was a Burglar.

Mr. Bailey Winstead of Sebree shot and killed Robert Ashby last Saturday night about 8 o'clock thinking he was some one trying to break in her house. It seems that the Winstead homestead had been lately burglarized and Mr. Winstead had left a loaded shotgun for his wife to protect herself with. Mrs. Ashby and her eleven year old son, Robert, went to the Winstead residence on the night in question to pay a call, the boy ran on ahead and reached the house a few minutes before his mother arrived began knocking loudly on the door. Mrs. Winstead who is a nervous delicate woman asked "who was there?" the boy replied in a coarse voice that she would know when he got inside. By this time Mrs. Winstead was badly frightened and snatching up the gun emptied its contents through the door panel. The charge of shot struck the little fellow in the chest and he died in his mother's arms paying with his life for a boyish prank. Mrs. Winstead and the boy's parents are frantic with grief. The Ashbys had only recently moved from Henderson to Sebree.

THEY ARE AFTER DAVE.

The Creditors of David Hurtwitz, the Erstwhile Madisonville Merchant, Claim He Practiced Fraud.

A petition has been filed in the office of Deputy Clerk Lindsey asking that David Hurtwitz be adjudged a bankrupt, says the Owensboro Inquirer. The petition is signed by three of Hurtwitz's creditors. Hurtwitz has been a general merchant at Madisonville but recently made an assignment, struck his tent and left the country. As yet the United States officers have failed to locate him but an order has been published commanding him to appear in Louisville June 2 when the petition will be passed upon. The petitioners are all Louisville firms and their claims are as follows: Nathan Plant & Co., $430.30; Gabriel Schwartz, $317.80; James A. Shuttleworth & Co., $129.

Hurtwitz liabilities amounting to about $19,000 nearly all created within a year, and left behind him property worth about $1,500 on its face, but which will probably not net $500 when it is disposed of by the assignee.

BONE FOOD

Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.

Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft heads.

Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it.

In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

Send for free sample.
